

SETTING UP A LIVE EXPORT NLIS DATABASE ACCOUNT

The National Livestock Identification System (NLIS) database is operated by Integrity Systems Company (ISC). It holds movement records for NLIS accredited devices using their RFID and/or associated NLIS ID numbers, along with information regarding individual animals, residue, disease and market access statuses.

ACCESSING THE NLIS DATABASE

Live Exporters (including operators of quarantine properties/ depots and their associated agents) must have a Live Exporter NLIS database account on the NLIS database and obtain a user ID and password in order to record livestock movements.

The below information details how to apply for a Live Exporter NLIS database account.

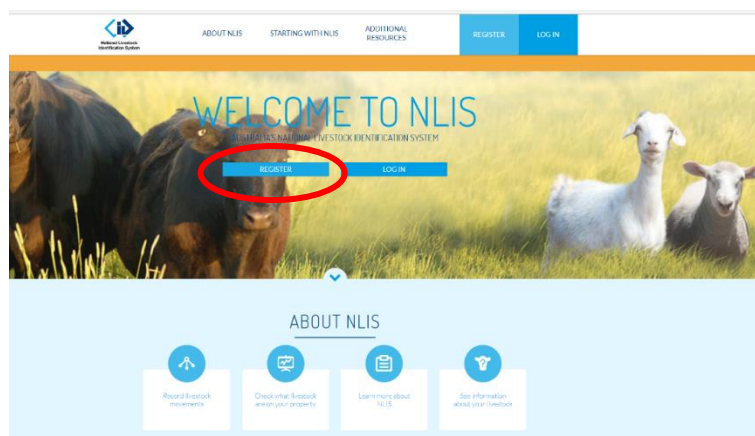

STEP 1:

Access the NLIS database at: www.nlis.com.au

STEP 2:

Click on the 'Register' button on the home page.

STEP 3:

Fill in your details as directed. Options will appear step by step after agreeing to the NLIS Terms of Use.

You will be prompted to indicate what type of account you are applying for, eg: Producer or other (Live Exporter).

You will need to have a Property Identification Codes (PIC) or your agent PIC and an email address to complete the information required.

Please be aware that new account requests may need to be validated by your State authority. It could take up to 7 days for the account to be activated.

The screenshot shows the 'REGISTER' page for the National Livestock Identification System. At the top, there is a blue header with the NLIS logo and the word 'REGISTER'. Below the header, a section titled 'BEFORE YOU START' contains a warning: 'Please be aware that new account requests may need to be validated by your State/Territory NLIS authority. It could take up to 7 days for us to activate your account.' A '*Required' label is positioned to the right. The main content area features a vertical list of four steps: 1. 'Agree to the NLIS Terms of Use' (highlighted in blue), 2. 'Choose your account type', 3. 'Provide your account details', and 4. 'Choose your password'. Step 1 includes a text box with the following text: 'I acknowledge and agree that the use of the ERP and NLIS Database, the use and disclosure of the information in the Database, and the administration of the NLIS is subject to the NLIS Terms of Use. I warrant that the below information provided by me is accurate.' Below this text is a checkbox labeled 'I agree to the NLIS Terms of Use'. At the bottom of the steps is a blue 'REGISTER' button. A footer section contains the text: 'Need further help? Contact the NLIS Helpdesk from 9:00AM to 5:00PM Sydney time, Monday to Friday: @support@nlis.com.au 1800 654 743'.

STEP 4:

Your details will be added to the system and you will receive an email with a secure username and password to access your NLIS information.
