

Victorian cat breeders

Breeders with up to 10
fertile females and are a member of an
applicable organisation

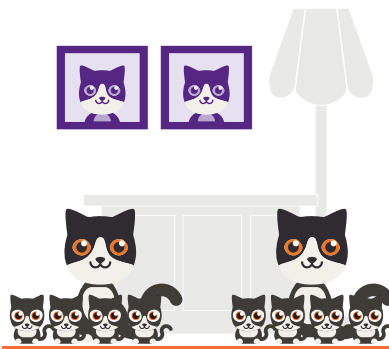

Defined as a Recreational Breeder

Be a member of an applicable organisation and comply with their organisation's Code of Ethics.

Must have no more than 2 fertile female cats not registered with their applicable organisation.

From 1 July 2019, recreational breeders will be required to enrol for a source number from the Pet Exchange Register before advertising cats for sale (or free to good home). Both source and microchip numbers must be included in any advertisements (your applicable organisation member number may also be included).

Source number and the local government area of the breeder will be made available to the public on the Pet Exchange Register. This will allow the buyer to check against any advertisement that the seller is registered in Victoria to sell a cat.

Breeders with 1 – 2
fertile females and
NOT a member of an
applicable organisation

No registration with Local Council required

Defined as Microbreeders – members of the public (non- Applicable Organisation members) with 1-2 fertile females, who allow their animals to breed, and then sell or give away the kittens.

From 1 July 2019, microbreeders will be required to enrol for a source number from the Pet Exchange Register before advertising cats for sale (or free to good home). Both source and microchip numbers must be included in any advertisements.

Source number and the local government area of the breeder will be made available to the public on the Pet Exchange Register. This will allow the buyer to check against any advertisement that the seller is registered in Victoria to sell a cat.

Breeders with 3 or more
fertile females and
NOT a member of an
applicable organisation

Registration with Local Council required

Register with Local Council as a Domestic Animal Business and comply with the mandatory Code of Practice for the Operation of Breeding and Rearing Businesses.

From 1 July 2019, breeding Domestic Animal Businesses will receive a source number from the Pet Exchange Register before advertising cats for sale (or free to good home). Both source and microchip numbers must be linked and included in any advertisements.

Source number and the local government area of the breeder will be made available to the public on the Pet Exchange Register. This will allow the buyer to check against any advertisement that the seller is registered in Victoria to sell a cat.
