

Scale operator - fixed

Livestock delivered to scale

All animals must be tagged with an NLIS tag. If an animal is untagged it must be tagged with a scale orange post-breeder tag

Breeder tags

Post-breeder tags

An accurate and complete vendor declaration must be present at the time of the animals arrival

Livestock scanned at scale

Calves under six weeks of age must be scanned on arrival to the scale

All other animals must be scanned before they leave the scale

NLIS transfer completed

The NLIS transfer must be completed before the animals leave the scale

The NLIS transfer must include the:

- date of purchase,
- PIC of the property (PIC on the vendor declaration),
- NLIS tag numbers,
- vendor declaration number and
- destination PIC

Livestock transferred to destination

The vendor declaration must be provided to the person receiving the animals by no later than the time of their arrival

